

My Schedule for the Egg Hunt

Event	Suggested Time Span	My Time Time Span	Suggested Schedule	My Time Schedule
Welcome & Game	25:00	<input type="text"/>	1:50 pm - 2:15 pm	<input type="text"/>

TIP: Expect some guests to arrive early, some late. During this time, occupy the children and keep them from hunting eggs by playing a game. Avoid delaying the egg hunt more than 15 minutes or children's patience will wane.

Egg Hunt	15:00	<input type="text"/>	2:15 pm - 2:30 pm	<input type="text"/>
----------	-------	----------------------	-------------------	----------------------

TIP: Once most guests have arrived, get their attention, welcome them, and explain the egg hunt rules and egg limit.

Story Time	15:00	<input type="text"/>	2:35 pm - 2:50 pm	<input type="text"/>
------------	-------	----------------------	-------------------	----------------------

TIP: Gather the children. Collect numbered Resurrection Eggs, swapping these for small prizes or candy. Trade Egg #12 for the grand prize, explaining they'll soon find out why this egg is special. Prevent distractions by setting Easter baskets aside. Tell the story following suggestions in the Resurrection Eggs booklet.

Refreshments	20:00	<input type="text"/>	2:50 pm - 3:10 pm	<input type="text"/>
--------------	-------	----------------------	-------------------	----------------------

TIP: If a child wants more information about knowing Christ, this might be a good time to answer his questions in a quiet corner—so long as you reassure him he won't miss dessert.

Games, Crafts, & Wrap Up	20:00	<input type="text"/>	3:10 pm - 3:30 pm	<input type="text"/>
--------------------------	-------	----------------------	-------------------	----------------------

TIP: Swap your loaned-out Easter baskets for plastic bags. Burn off that sugar by playing a game, coloring, or making a craft until the end time.

Good Bye	15:00	<input type="text"/>	3:30 pm - 3:45 pm	<input type="text"/>
----------	-------	----------------------	-------------------	----------------------

TIP: As parents pick up their children, thank them for allowing their children to come and invite them to church. Answer their questions now or offer to do so at a later time.
