

Keep faith at the Center of Parenting

Parenting shouldn't be done alone.

That's why for more than 40 years FamilyLife has come alongside parents, equipping them to shepherd and establish biblical character in their children.

FamilyLife's Art of Parenting is an interactive experience designed for home or church environments to help parents integrate faith into everyday moments. You'll be equipped to make faith the core of your parenting through intentional, biblical instruction and Christ-centered plans that aim children's hearts toward God.

Whether done in a group or on your own, you'll finish with renewed confidence, fresh insights on parenting children of different ages, and a plan unique to each child's personality and gifts.

Every Home matters

FamilyLife is a donor-supported nonprofit organization in Little Rock, Arkansas, cofounded in 1976 by Dennis and Barbara Rainey and led by David and Meg Robbins since 2017. FamilyLife's mission is to effectively develop godly marriages and families who change the world one home at a time.

Forty-plus years later, with more than 3 million people attending events, 1.6 million weekly radio listeners, and resources in over 100 countries, we're still committed to helping every family ... including your family.

“Rules with no relationship=rebellion. Our group had great discussion about the importance of having great relationships with children along with healthy discipline.”

What others are Saying

“It helped me take the time to focus on the different aspects of our children’s lives and how to make God the center of our family.”

“This resource has become a vital ministry resource for our church. We actually showed it during our mid week service and our attendance grew after the first Session. My Husband is the Pastor and we have four daughters. We personally felt it offered hope to us as Parents to not be afraid.”

FamilyLife’s Art of Parenting is available in two formats:

Small-group series—We’ve found life change happens best in community. This eight-session, video-based study is designed to not only help parents find new ways to integrate faith into everyday parenting moments, but also to create an environment where moms and dads can shoulder burdens together, celebrate breakthroughs, and relate to one another’s day-to-day parenting journey.

Online course—Need more flexibility? No problem. Our online course is a digital experience available anytime at any pace to help individual parents or couples instill faith in their children.

Both formats include:

- High-impact videos rooted in the reliable word of God
- Activities, questions, and printables to help you apply what you learn
- Bonus materials addressing a variety of parenting stages, challenges, and family situations
- A foundational “raising and releasing” activity for your children to capture your vision

In FamilyLife’s Art of Parenting,

prominent ministry leaders share Bible-based insight as well as stories of their own pitfalls and, successes to help you aim your child’s heart to God. These parenting pros include:
